OPPOSE MINIMUM WAGE MEASURE

Richmond Merchants Wire Park and Wallace—Anti-Trading Stamp Bill Passes

About 14 or 15 Richmond business men shot in telegrams to Frankfort this week asking Madison's state senator, William L. Wallace, and representative Jim Park to oppose the minimum wage bill now before the General Assembly.

This bill, so it is understood, provides a minimum wage and other conditions that would hedge about the employment of female labor. A reply was received from Mr. Wallace Friday stating that he opposed the bill in the committee and would do so on the floor of the senate when it comes to a vote. Miss Jeannette Rankin, former Congresswoman from Montana and a number of other representatives of certain organizations have been lobbying for this measure.

Trading Stamps Knocked Out

Frankfort, Feb. 3.—The House of Representatives Thursday passed the Anti-Trading Stamp bill by a vote of 59 to 20, after a debate in which Representative C. D. McNew, of Paducah, Harry Miller, of Lexington, and Mrs. Mary Elliott Plannery, of Catlettsburg, spoke for the measure and Representative D. A. O'Donovan, of Covington, opposed it.

"The bill is very like the first bill we passed here," said Mr. McNew. "That was to relieve the farmers of an insupportable condition. We are now asked to relieve the merchants of an equally insupportable condition. Trading stamps are a menace to merchandise, a cottole, a barmale on Kentucky trade and a leech on legitimate transactions. I introduced this bill the first bill of the session. There has been every opportunity for discussion of it in committee and at other places since that time."

Mr. O'Donovan's arguments were based on the fact that a merchant receives a cash discount on which he buys. "He takes the cash discount and gives trading stamps," he said. "He doesn't add a cent to the price of his goods. He has made money by paying cash and he gives that to his customers. You can buy as cheaply where they do give stamps as where they don't. You are seeking to take away from the women of the state something they want. You are taking a privilege away from the merchants. You might as well say that they must not give their customers Christmas presents."

"There are fifteen or twenty stores in Covington that give stamps, but nobody has to take them and nobody has to go to these stores. There are plenty of places that don't give them. It is strange," said Mr. Miller, "that if this bill is taking something away from the merchants and the women, which is not filling the coffers of some company, there are so many interests here to represent the interests of the Security Coupon Company. If this company is giving something away, all we want to do is to burden it, but if it is taking something, then we want to unload the merchant and the people of their burden."

"When a merchant buys stamps he pays $2.50 for $100 worth. When he takes them back, he gets $2. That's a 20 per cent profit. It is fair to say that not over 80 per cent of them are redeemed. That gives the trading stamp company 40 per cent profit and the poor old ultimate consumer catches it every time. The merchant raises the cost of his goods 3 per cent when he takes stamps. The ultimate consumer gets 2 per cent discount and pays 3 per cent extra. We are here to help Kentucky, not foreign corporations and money interests. In the name of the merchants and the people of Kentucky who fill the coffers of the Security Coupon Company, take this millstone from around their necks."

Representative C. A. Nelson, of Hardin county, asked Mr. Miller why merchants who do not give stamps should fear those who do and Mr. Miller answered that when one merchant in a town gives them the others are forced to do so.

Mrs. Plannery said that she re-

Call For Clothing

On account of many men being out of work, the Welfare League is having more demands for second-hand clothing than it can supply. Practically all the homes in Richmond have contributed what clothing they had on hand for this cause. Consequently an appeal is made to those living outside the town and in the country. Everyone who can respond to this appeal is asked to bring the clothing, shoes, underwear or other articles on next Monday, and they will be received at the basement of the Baptist church between 8:30 and 4 o'clock. Any others in Richmond who will be suffering in this way are asked to respond Monday.

MAKING 'SHINERS LIVE HARD IN LINCOLN, TOO

Lincoln county recently installed a sheriff who is of the aggressive type of Sheriff Elmer Deatherage, of Madison. Down there, Sheriff George Debord has started warfare on moonshiners and bootleggers, too. There seem to be a lot of them, too, if results of one of the first raids of the new sheriff are a criterion. The Stanford Journal says of the raid and its results:

Saturday wasn't an exceptionally good day for finding illicit stills, but Sheriff George Debord, Deputy Sheriff John Meeks, Chief of Police George T. Wood and County Attorney Kelley I. Francis made a trip to the Mount Vernon section in the East End and found three and brought them back to town with them. They also brought back four men on whisky charges. August Bender had a very complete still on his place and two barrels of beer about ready to be made into booze. The beer was destroyed. Two gallons of whisky was also found and that was taken in charge by the officers. A. H. Feldman's farm was next visited. A big fine worm was found as were some other parts of a still, and there, together with about two gallons of booze, were confiscated. Frank Beck was wanted on a whisky charge and he was arrested. No whisky or still was found on his premises. Anthon Moes was next called on. A still was found in his basement and beer to the amount of three barrels or more was destroyed. There was also men, stills, parts of stills, and three gallons of moonshine. The whisky were all loaded into cars and brought to Stanford, where Judge Bell allowed them bond in $250. Of course they gave it and in less time than it takes to tell the story they were back home, probably getting ready to start stilling again. What these birds need is to be kept in jail and a pity that Judge Bell does not make their bonds so high that they can not gain their liberty. That they are guilty there is no doubt and they should be held to the grand jury so they could neither ply their nefarious trade nor manufacture evidence which they might be acquitted. The Interior Journal is no lawyer and Judge Bell may be right and we may be wrong, but it strikes us that $250 is mighty little to hold a man who is as certain of infraction of the whisky law as anything can be.

He would have absolute charge of all road construction work and of the management of the road funds. The bill has been referred to Mr. Strauge's own committee and is almost certain of a favorable report, it is said.

KENTUCKY BECOMING GREAT DAIRY STATE

Lexington, Feb. 3.—Kentucky now has 344,000 cows kept for milk and cream production that are worth $33,000,000. J. J. RUSHING MILITIA TO NEWPORT, AGAIN

Frankfort, Feb. 3.—Kentucky national guardsmen from pine cities today are converging on Newport, where the steel mill strike is on. Three hundred and fifty men ordered out of the Covington tank company are already on the ground. All troops are fully equipped for field duty and prepared to stay for an indefinite time. Troops were removed ten days ago on a promise that order would be kept. Yesterday, however, the authorities notified Governor Morrow the situation is beyond their control.

Newport, Feb. 3.—This city is quiet today after a night during which several shots were fired in the rolling mill strike. Many persons in the strike area fled to their cellars and others to the homes of friends in remote parts of the city.

Manager H. P. Harris has been notified that in the future the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Company is prepared to handle conversations direct between Richmond and Cincinnati. This will be a considerable service to patrons of the Richmond exchange.

MABEL NORMAN SAW SLAIN MAN LAST

Los Angeles, Feb. 3.—The police are still without a clue today to the murderer of William Desmond Taylor, motion picture director, whose body was found yesterday in an apartment where Mabel Norman, moving picture star, was among the last to see him alive.

She said she called at his apartment during the evening about a book Taylor had loaned her. Meanwhile the hunt largely is centered on a man whose skulking figure was seen near the Taylor apartment during the night he was slain. Half a dozen cigarette stubs found at a rear door of Taylor's home, indicate some man nervously waited for a chance to kill Taylor. This is the only clue to the mystery.

KENTUCKY BECOMING GREAT DAIRY STATE

Lexington, Feb. 3.—Kentucky now has 344,000 cows kept for milk and cream production that are worth $33,000,000. J. J. Hooper, head of the dairy department of the College of Agriculture, told Kentucky farmers and their wives at the tenth annual Farm and Home Convention here today in pointing out to them the development and importance of the state's dairying.

Besides supplying the cities and farms with milk, these animals annually produce enough cream to make 5,300,000 pounds of creamery butter worth more than $2,000,000, the speaker said. Mr. Hooper predicted that in another five years, the value of the state's dairy cows would exceed that of her horse stock, at which time the value of dairy cattle would exceed the value of all other domestic animals kept on the farm.

"Eighty farms out of every 100 in Kentucky are reported as keeping a few dairy cows while further indications of the interest which farmers are taking in dairying is found in the exhibits of dairy cattle made at the State and county fairs during the past year," the speaker said.

"For the first time in the history of the Kentucky State Fair, Kentucky cattlemen and dairy cattle breeders exhibited more dairy cattle at the 1921 fair than did breeders and dairymen from other states," Mr. Hooper said.

In line with the development of the dairy industry in the state, more than 500 little cream stations are now scattered over the state with the result that a gallon of cream is more salable today than any other product produced on the farm, the speaker said.

"The farmers have learned that the cream check fills in gaps in the farm income," the speaker declared.

The interest of farm boys and girls in the dairying marks another step in the development of the state's dairy industry, the speaker pointed out. Through the cooperation of banks, 110 heifer calves have been purchased for junior agricultural club members in five counties of the state, according to Mr. Hooper. These will be used as foundations for future herds.

In speaking of the future development of the industry, Mr. Hooper said "It is not anticipated that our farmers will go into dairying on a large scale, but they will keep from six to ten good cows."

DRIVING STOCK OVER NEW PAVED STREETS

Discussed At Length At Council Meeting—Fifth Streets Wants A Sewer

Discussion of the trouble that cattle and hog shippers are put to in having to drive their livestock around side streets in Richmond to avoid the grass plots and lawns of residents on the paved streets, occupied the principal attention of the city council at its regular monthly meeting Thursday night.

Messrs. S. A. D. Jones, Wm. Wager and Garnett Million presented the matter on behalf of the live-stock men. Councilman J. K. McKinney and Mayor O'Neil agreed with them that the city desires to do everything possible to help out its farmer friends, so it was decided to have a meeting later of the Street Committee and live-stock men and see what can be done to remedy any condition that they thing hurts them.

After considerable discussion of the practice of city employees of buying supplies for various departments of the city without let or hindrance, and charging same to the city, it was decided to have a meeting of the Finance Committee to decide upon a plan for purchase of the city's supplies in the future. Councilman James Crutcher said that it was not business-like to buy things for any body the way the city's supplies are bought.

Councilmen James W. Hamilton and Sam Turpin failed to show up for the meeting, but with Councilmen Crutcher, Martin, Benton and McKinney there was a quorum present when the Mayor called the meeting to order.

City officials' reports showed collections by City Tax Collector Dykes of $825.45 during January. Jailer Charles Rogers' bill for January was $40.95. Chief of Police Charles Devore's report showed collection of $204 in fine during the past month. Police Judge G. Murray Smith's report showed $205 assessed in fines in his court.

Mayor O'Neil reported that the 500 feet of new pipe have been received. Upon his motion, Dr. W. K. Price was refunded $5 for six months' medical license, as he did not begin practice until January 1st and the city fiscal year on license payments runs from July to July. E. G. York was also allowed three and a half months' rebate on meat license.

Councilman Benton reported on the purchase of garbage cans and the council voted to buy 24 new ones, half with handles and half with tops at about $50 a can. Street Commissioner Allman reported that one sewer is finished and the other will be finished this week, when Councilman McKinney was asked to report on the sewers needed on the Hathaway and San Rice lots in the east end of town.

Councilman Benton suggested also that the people in the Excelsior section of the city were without water, lights and streets and be declared he believed that something should be done for them. Mayor O'Neil agreed with him and after considerable discussion, the matter was referred to appropriate committees to report back to the next meeting of the council.

Councilman McKinney presented a petition from residents on Fifth street for a sewer. This was referred to the Sewer Committee. Mayor O'Neil said that he knew this street needed a sewer and that others did, too, but that it had simply been a question of how much money the city had for this purpose. The Fifth street petition was signed by J. L. Kanawyer, Mrs. S. S. Combs, Mrs. S. K. Leavell, J. K. Chaney, Charles Nelson, Benj. Sewell, Allie Barnes, Dick Simpson, Robt. Walker, J. C. Hawkins, James P. Reeves, Thos. W. Reeves, Chas. H. Reeves, James P. Jones, John D. Durham, Milt Hall, J. F. White, J. B. Harris, Mrs. L. E. Farmer, W. R. Rowlette, J. A. Ham, W. H. Jones, James H. That some men can do a good business in any year, entirely regardless of general conditions, has often been proved and it was proved again last year by Henry Ford. Ford dealers sold 1,043,000 cars, trucks and tractors in 1921, which was 194,213 more than they sold in 1920.

Does advertising pay? The Ford car is the best advertised product in America in every way. In the past eighteen months Ford has had four price reductions—the price of touring cars alone

CAN'T DO THE WORK

It's too much to try to work every day against a constant, dull headache, or sudden darting pain in the small of the back. Be rid of it. Try Dean's Kidney Pills. Your neighbors recommend them—ask your neighbors! Mrs. Lucy Horn, B and Prather streets, Richmond, says: "I had a good deal of pain in my side and across the small of my back. My back was lame when I got up in the morning and I was so lame through my hips I couldn't do a thing about the house. When I stooped over my back hurt and I would get dizzy and very specks came before my eyes. I had heard so much about Dean's Kidney Pills that I got some at the Richmond Drug Co. In a few days the trouble left me. I think Dean's have cured me for I don't have these specks any more."

A statement from the Ford people says that their December sales records for 1921 and 1922 indicate that both the farmer and the general public are now buying more freely. They look for a good year in 1922.

Merchants who do not believe in advertising listen. Do you believe that great as the merits of the Ford products are, it would have been possible for Ford to have sold over a million in 1921 if his product had not been the best advertised in America?

See what haste and gumption will do in a bad year, a dead year, a year when most business men were satisfied with half their former business. If you've got anything to sell the public which it is worth their while to buy, advertise it! Woodford Sun.

Why Are Some Women Popular? Lipped, belov'd, and successful while others drag out a negative existence of no use to them selves or anyone else? Except in a few cases the answer is to be found in a state of freedom from the troubles known as "menstrual." The well woman radiates cheerfulness and serenity, while the ailing one radiates because of her lack of these qualities. It is no necessary, however, to harbor such and pains, and the "bills" that make one a detriment to society. The use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought relief to such women and given them a new lease on life.

Thank the A. P.

The Daily Register has been complimented on its publication of abstracts of the principal addresses before the Farin and Home Conference on at Lexington this week. It is through the incomparable service of the Associated Press that it is enabled to do so. The A. P. has a wonderful news gathering organization, and for some months has been covering Kentucky for its state service in a manner that would be hard to improve upon. The Daily Register is mighty proud of the news up to the minute that it is enabled to give its readers through the Associated Press. An instance noted a few weeks ago, but not commented upon at the time, was the death of "Marse Henry" Watterson in Florida. Hundreds of Daily Register readers within a radius of 50 miles or so from Richmond received their first news of the passing of the grand old man in the columns of this paper. The Associated Press is in a class by itself and the Daily Register is proud to be a member of it. Likewise it seems to be conceded that the Daily Register is the very best daily paper in Madison county.

Representative Meyer of New York, recently told Congress that more than 7,000,000 Americans were idle and that many of them were in want. Can this be a part of the "7,000,000 majority" that discarded Wilson at the polls about a year ago? We thought everybody was to be escorted back to normalcy over night by President Harding, and that all of us would be fed with golden spoons, with pie for breakfast, everything. SENATOR GARNER HAS A SCHOOL BILL

(By Associated Press) Frankfort, Feb. 3.—Senator Pat Garner, Breckinridge county, is working on a bill which he says will materially aid the district graded and county high schools of Kentucky and ultimately prepare a greater number of pupils for the normal schools and the universities. He expects to introduce the measure the latter part of this week.

The idea of the bill, according to Senator Garner, is to increase the appropriations for the normal schools and allow a certain percentage of this appropriation for the district graded and county high schools. He has not decided upon the exact percentage the smaller schools will receive but he thinks they will get enough to enlarge their present facilities so that more students will be turned out annually.

STAGGERING FIRE LOSS IN 5-YEAR PERIOD

New York, Feb. 3.—Three hundred and thirty-four thousand dwellings at $5,000 each, sufficient to house 1,700,000 persons, could be built with the money lost in fires in the United States from 1915 to 1920, according to figures given out today by the National Board of Fire Underwriters. The board places the national fire loss during the five year period at $1,672,722,677, based on examination of over 3,000,000 reports of fires.

Matches and smoking hazards are held responsible for $90,000,000 of losses, according to the report. Next comes electricity, which caused fires costing $86,000,000. Stoves, furnaces, boilers and pipes caused a loss of $63,000,000; defective chimneys and flues cost $61,000,000 and exposure, which means unattended fires, $233,000,000.

Sixty-seven per cent of the total loss was caused as strictly or partly preventable. New York suffered most heavily with a loss of $164,000,000; Pennsylvania came second with $97,000,000; Illinois third with $88,000,000; Follow New Jersey with $70,000,000; Ohio with $63,000,000; Texas with $59,000,000; Massachusetts $58,000,000 and California $54,000,000.

LO, THE BEAUTIES OF BOLSHEVISM!

Moscow, Feb. 3.—This city has become a wide open town for the first time in its modern history. It is open for business, for thefts, for holdups, for fun, for disease and disaster, or speculation, for drinking for any and all things man or woman may devise. The oldtimers of the strict pre-war regime can't recognize anything but the snow. It used to be, before the war, a sort of country, family town, as compared to the gayer skylarking of St. Petersburg.

A Russian Rip Van Winkle, who had slept during the past three years, wouldn't know the town these nights. Church bells ring out for prayers. Communists and bourgeoisie, peasants and princesses are all scrambling for

GIVE A BABY SYRUP PEPSIN

Constipation, biliousness and like annoying ills will quickly disappear

A MOTHER always wants to give the safest and best medicine to a comatated baby, but is puzzled which to select. Let her decide by the ingredients on the package.

Every bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has the formula printed plainly on the outside of the carton under the portrait of Dr. Caldwell, who wrote the prescription in 1892. You will find that it is a combination of Egyptian Senna and other simple laxative herbs with pepsin. It will not gripe the baby, and it is free from narcotics. A bottle sufficient to last a family several months can be had at any drug store, and the cost is only about a cent a dose.

While no one, young or old, need take a drastic purgative like salts or calomel, he must be careful when you give a child. Some contain minerals, coal tar and other drugs that might prove dangerous by over stimulating the intestines or depressing the heart. The ingredients of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are recommended by the U. S. Pharmacopoeia.

Chronic Constipation

There are people who never have a movement at the largest thrust it is produced by a disturbance about as often have through the constipation of themselves in the use of natural systems and strong cathartics. They lose the nerve, wear out of the system and acquire the chronic type and spend in pain. A good laxative such as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and movement of the bowels that permanently restores the bowels to normal action, and there can be no risk in fully to be followed by

Dollars and Cents
Counting it only in dollars and cents, how much did that last cold cost you? A man may not always stop work when he has a cold, but perhaps it would be better if he did. It takes about ten days to get completely rid of a cold under the usual treatment. That time can be much shortened by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and proper care of yourself, in fact, a bottle of this remedy in the house is a mighty good investment during the winter and spring months.

The Woodford Sun says "Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Zeigler, of Richmond, joined Mr. Clifford Zeigler, of Glasgow, for a visit to Mrs. Mary Zeigler in Versailles." Miss Nancy Treadway left Friday to spend the week end with her parents at Heidelberg.

MISS NELLIE COLLINS

"I have been thinking a great deal about the future of our country. It is a very serious matter, and I feel that we must all do our part to make it a better one. I am sure that if we only have faith and courage, we can overcome all our difficulties and build a great future for ourselves and for our children."

MOTHER, QUICK! GIVE CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP FOR CHILD'S BOWELS

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." If the little tongue is coated or if your child is listless, cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, a teaspoonful will never fail to open the bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation poison, sour bile and waste from the tender, little bowels and gives you a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

For the Children

Too much care can not be exercised in selecting a cough medicine for children. It should be pleasant to take, contain no harmful drug and most effective in curing their coughs and colds. Long experience has shown that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets these conditions. It is a favorite with many mothers. feb

Mrs. W. E. Linton, Sr., has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Jackson Brandenburg, in Lexington.

Periodic Bilious Attacks

Persons subject to periodic bilious attacks will observe that their appetite fails them just before an attack. That is, they do not crave food, but eat because it is meal time. If they will eat only a light meal and no meat, then take two of Chamberlain's Tablets, the attack may be avoided. feb

Mrs. W. L. West spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Clay Long.

Mr. James Richardson, of White's Station, was here Monday on business.

Chronic Constipation

There are people who never have a movement of the bowels without it is produced by a cathartic. Most of them have brought that condition on themselves by the use of mineral waters and strong cathartics that take too much water out of the system and aggravate the disease they are meant to relieve. A mild laxative tonic like Chamberlain's Tablets affords a gentle movement of the bowels that you hardly realize has been produced by a medicine, and their use is not so likely to be followed by constipation. feb

SOCIAL and PERSONAL
